

“We’re a multinational company, so you’ll have to be able to say ‘Mr.Harris isn’t in’ in ten languages.”

Try a Language for Lunch - Free Taster Session Friday 26th September 2008

To celebrate European Day of Languages, the Regional Language Network is offering East Midlands businesses the chance to participate in a free language taster session.

The session, held at your premises during lunchtime, can be in the language of your choice and promises to teach you some basic words and phrases to make that next business trip or holiday even more rewarding.

You choose the language and the focus of the session, it could be:

- Business - sample the language and culture of your customers.
- Team building - spend a fun-filled hour bonding with your work colleagues.
- Leisure - learn a few basic phrases to make your holiday go more smoothly.

Your session will be led by one of our quality-assured providers and will last for approximately one hour.

With no strings attached and no obligation to continue with any language learning this is the perfect way to say ‘bienvenue’ ‘willkommen’ ‘witamy’ (welcome) to the weekend.

So join us on Friday 26 September 2008 and make this European Day of Languages a day to remember.

Book early to avoid disappointment!

If you are interested in taking part, please contact:

Suzannah Hutton on 01332 826432 or at suzannah.hutton@rln-eastmidlands.com stating what language you would like to learn and where you are based.

supported by